Dear Mssrs. Zaid, Bakaj, and McCullough:

The Senate Select Committee on Intelligence is reviewing the Intelligence Community processes and procedures that were followed relative to the August 12, 2019, whistleblower complaint. The Committee requests that your client make himself/herself available for an in-person, transcribed, closed interview with bipartisan Committee staff at a mutually agreeable time before November 8, 2019.

As previously discussed, the Committee staff will make themselves available at any time of day or night, will travel to a mutually agreeable secure location of your client's choosing, and will work with the ICIG's office and/or ODNI to ensure that appropriate security procedures and protocols exist to protect your client's physical safety and anonymity.

Please respond in writing upon receipt of this letter. Should you decline to participate based on the assertion of any potential common law or constitutional privilege, the Committee requires that you make a specific and written assertion of such privilege. If you have any questions about this letter, please contact Committee counsel at 202-224-1700.

Sincerely,

Richard Burr
Chairman
