

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 6, 2019

Statement of November 6, 2019, Concerning the Suspected Identity of the Whistleblower

Identifying any suspected name for the whistleblower will place that individual and their family at risk of serious harm. We will not confirm or deny any name that is published or promoted by supporters of the President. Disclosure of any name undermines the integrity of the whistleblower system and will deter any future whistleblowers.

We will note, however, that publication or promotion of a name shows the desperation to deflect from the substance of the whistleblower complaint. It will not relieve the President of the need to address the substantive allegations, all of which have been substantially proven to be true.

Andrew P. Bakaj, Esq.

Lead Attorney for the Intelligence Community Whistleblower

Mark S. Zaid, Esq.

Attorney for the Intelligence Community Whistleblower

- End -